Dear Mr. Samson.

I have just received a letter from Mr Hyatt, offering $10? in a general way, for the republication of Summis Spent for distribution at the Work.

What will it be best for one to say in reply?

I wish I had known of the Lib. Extra: perhaps it might have dispaged that Expense. Perhaps that is already provided for. Perhaps it might make a Standard Extra, — or perhaps, with additional Contributions from other quarters, a fact.

Perhaps Republicans (as individuals though not as a party) are making it a campaign document? — Perhaps in that Case it would be well to Counsel Wyatt to hold on to his $100 a little longer? (& yet it is a risk to advise a man against his own inspirations.) I have not Knowledge of the facts in Connection, to be able to 67

answer him till I hear from you; But I should be glad to have the Sheets in fact form for distribution.

Trusting to hear from you Shortly, With regards to Mrs Garrison, I am your friend

W. L. Garrison
